DAAD Network Mobility Fellowships at the DAAD Center for German Studies, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Call for Applications

The DAAD Center for German Studies at the European Forum at the Hebrew University awards fellowships for visiting Master and/or PhD students for the spring semester of the academic year 2016-2017 (27.02-28.06.2017).

Conditions

Visiting students will be invited to spend a five-month term between mid-February 2017 and mid-July 2017 at the Center for German Studies at the European Forum at the Hebrew University. Students will attend the "Contemporary Germany: Politics, Society and Culture" program taught in English. The DAAD Center for German Studies will cover the students' tuition, accommodation in the university dormitories, travel expenses to Israel and back and health insurance.

Eligibility

Candidates for the fellowship must be enrolled in one of the Master or PhD programs offered by and/or affiliated with a DAAD Center for German and European Studies and should not be older than 30 years.

Application

The application should contain the following documents:

1. application form
2. a concise motivation letter in English (max. 2 pages, double spaced, A4)
3. a curriculum vitae
4. two references (one of them by the students DAAD Center Director and by a scholar familiar with the applicant's studies)

Deadline for application is December 1, 2016.

Applications should be submitted by email to the Center of German Studies: msgsr@savion.huji.ac.il

Decision will be made known by December, 20, 2016.
